

Dear Sirs:

This is in regard to your upcoming hearings concerning the no call list and the exemption the banking industry is requesting. As a resident of the state of Wisconsin I want to express my opinion that the current law in Wisconsin is very satisfactory and I definitely do not want the FCC or any other federal agency granting exemptions to the banking industry or any other industry, giving them the right to phone people who have signed up for the state and or federal no call list. Thank You